++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Clear spells and isolated coastal showers. Cold, with frost.

This Evening and Tonight:
Largely dry and cold with clear spells. Cloudier towards the coast however, with the odd shower possible. These perhaps wintry at times, mainly across hills. A frost is expected, especially inland, along with icy patches. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Saturday:
A frosty start, then a cold, largely dry and sunny morning, although coastal showers likely. Showers spreading further inland through the afternoon, and wintry across the hills. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Staying cold, with a mixture of rain, sleet and snow throughout the period, and brisk northeasterly winds. Snow mainly confined to hills, but not exclusively. Frost and ice risk throughout.
